2. Commercial Proposal

2.1. Payment Terms & Schedule

Our payment terms are strictly 30 days, i.e., payment is required within 30 days of the date that the invoice is issued, and is based on:

- 100% of the contract price on notification of availability of goods for despatch

Where iconsys is late in receiving payment against a valid invoice, we reserve the right to charge interest daily on the overdue amount based on an interest rate of three percent (3%) above the official base rate of the Bank of England in force at the time.

2.2. Warranty

iconsys standard warranty period is 12 months from delivery or, in the event of a delivery delay caused by others, 12 months from notification of readiness for despatch from our works. Our warranty is subject to correct operation and maintenance and does not cover fair wear and tear.

Any components supplied by iconsys as part of this contract that fail within the stated warranty period should be returned to iconsys for inspection and will be replaced if found to be faulty. Should a fault be suspected with one of our services (e.g., design, manufacture, installation or commissioning), iconsys will require a Purchase Order to visit site and if the fault is found to be due to iconsys, the order value will be credited.

Please note that extended warranty cover is also available. Please confirm your requirements and we will modify our proposal accordingly.

2.3. Terms and Conditions

Any order placed will be subject to iconsys' standard terms and conditions of sale, a copy of which is available on request.

This quotation is only valid if the goods are solely for civil use, not to be used in connection with any nuclear application or to be supplied to any country or for any application prohibited by law or regulation binding in the United Kingdom.

2.4. Validity

Our quotation is valid for 14 days from the above quotation date.

For and on behalf of iconsys (the trading name of Independent Control Systems Ltd.)
